

SHANNON L. FLINN

Paralegal

Shannon Flinn is an experienced paralegal at Anthony Ostlund, where she has been a part of the team since 2005. Shannon works alongside attorneys from the early stages of each case, managing document collection and review with leading e-discovery technology, preparing for depositions, gathering evidence in support of motions, preparing for and attending trial, and working through appeals. Shannon plays an essential role in supporting the team throughout each phase of litigation, contributing to the firm's ability to provide exceptional service to its clients.

Shannon has a Bachelor's degree in Legal Studies and a Paralegal Certificate from Hamline University.
